UWS graduate Francesco Loretucci is co-founder of Bonny Vita which brings the best Italian ingredients to the Scottish market.

Francesco studied marketing in the UWS School of Business & Enterprise. He says that “the lecturers at UWS made every student feel they were important. Every time I had a problem I could talk to them.” The skills he gained on his degree and from the UWS MBA that he then went on to study were crucial to his business start-up. He was also successful in winning the prize of ‘Entrepreneur of the Moment’ from business acceleration organisation Entrepreneurial Spark which helped him develop his business ideas.

So how did Francesco’s time at UWS help him with his busy career? “My studies opened a lot of doors. The teaching at UWS was absolutely brilliant – and gave me a wide understanding of business, from logistics and finance right through to leadership and people management,” he says.

International students may make a direct application to UWS or apply through UCAS. You can make a direct application to UWS if you have not applied to any other UK university and wish to only apply to UWS – visit www.uws.ac.uk/international
